

NOTICE UNDER THE AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT

In accordance with the requirements of title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (“ADA”), the County of Greenville, South Carolina (“Greenville County”) will not discriminate against qualified individuals with disabilities on the basis of disability in its services, programs, or activities.

Employment: Greenville County does not discriminate on the basis of disability in its hiring or employment practices and complies with all regulations promulgated by the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission under title I of the ADA.

Effective Communication: Greenville County will generally, upon request, provide appropriate aids and services leading to effective communication for qualified persons with disabilities so they can participate equally in Greenville County’s programs, services, and activities, including qualified sign language interpreters, documents in Braille, and other ways of making information and communications accessible to people who have speech, hearing, or vision impairments.

Modifications to Policies and Procedures: Greenville County will make all reasonable modifications to policies and programs to ensure that people with disabilities have an equal opportunity to enjoy all of its programs, services, and activities. For example, individuals with service animals are welcomed in Greenville County offices, even where pets are generally prohibited.

Anyone who requires an auxiliary aid or service for effective communication, or a modification of policies or procedures to participate in a program, service, or activity of Greenville County, should contact the office of Steward Lawrence, Risk and Safety Coordinator / ADA Coordinator, 301 University Ridge, Suite 500, Greenville, SC 29601; Phone: (864) 467-7150; TDD (864) 467-7590, as soon as possible but no later than 48 hours before the scheduled event.

The ADA does not require Greenville County to take any action that would fundamentally alter the nature of its programs or services, or impose an undue financial or administrative burden.

Complaints that a program, service, or activity of Greenville County is not accessible to persons with disabilities should be directed to Steward Lawrence, Risk and Safety Coordinator / ADA Coordinator, 300 University Ridge, Suite 500, Greenville, SC 29601 (864) 467-7150.

Greenville County will not place a surcharge on a particular individual with a disability or any group of individuals with disabilities to cover the cost of providing auxiliary aids/services or reasonable modifications of policy, such as retrieving items from locations that are open to the public but are not accessible to persons who use wheelchairs.
